

Teacher Prep IN THE 21ST CENTURY

---

envisioning a new age of Latin teachers

a pre-institute workshop

ACL INSTITUTE 2006

University of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

June 22, 2006, 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and June 23, 2006, 8 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Even the best textbook is only as good as the teacher who uses it, and too many new teachers still enter the classroom incompletely prepared to make effective use of their materials. This interactive workshop addresses many of the teaching issues that are often overlooked during normal coursework at universities, including classroom management, pronunciation and oral Latin, teaching intensive and extensive reading skills, creating class structure, understanding cognitive development of middle school and high school students and more.

Who should attend?

- * prospective teachers
- * 1st -3rd year teachers
- * mentors to new teachers
- * people involved in teacher education programs

But also...

- * AP/IB teachers wanting to improve the reading skills of their students
- * teachers at all experience levels looking for new ideas to address national standards
