

SEGOVIA

THE ROMANS IN HISPANIA

The Roman aqueduct in Segovia was built around 50 BCE. It has two tiers of 163 arches, contains 200,000 blocks of granite and has no mortar. Amazingly this aqueduct was still in use in the 1980s.

