May 4: Two Master Teachers Sharing Ideas

Evaluating this year, planning for the next: Things I wish I'd known in my first years of teaching.

Learn to trust yourself and push your boundaries; keep promoting your kids and the classics; and get out from behind your computer and attend conferences!

Keely K. Lake grew up in South Dakota and earned her undergraduate degree at the University of S. D. She earned her Ph.D. at the University of Iowa, and since 2002 has taught at the Wayland Academy in Wisconsin, where she teaches Latin, Greek, and the ancient world, while coaching volleyball and track. She is College Board Liaison to the A. P. Latin Committee, Secretary of the Vergilian Society, WAFLT's representative to the Joint National Committee on Foreign Languages and a member of the JNCL board. Keely has a dog and two cats who keep her company when she's on dorm duty.

Reflection, Mentors, Initiation, and Libraries...It is all about YOU and YOUR Classroom!

Linda Sharrard Montross grew up in Michigan, where she received her undergraduate at Oakland University in 1969. She subsequently began teaching in Fairfax County, Virginia, earned a Masters in Education in Latin from the University of Virginia in 1976, and retired in 2000. She was one of the founding members of the National Latin Exam in 1977 and currently serves as Co-Chair. She has frequently presented at classical conferences on pedagogy and the NLE. In addition to her "Latin Life" she enjoys quilting, golf, bridge, and tea parties!

Each webinar will begin at 6:00 p.m. Eastern time, with 45 minutes of explanation followed by time for questions and answers. To register or for more information write pender@wfu.edu, Mary Pendergraft.
